SPECIAL ORDERS

Issued to U. S. W. V. Regarding Roosevelt Reception.

The following special orders have been issued:

Headquarters

Department of Connecticut.

United Spanish War Veterans.

Circular No. 1.

Attention! All comrades of this department have been invited by the department of Connecticut to unite in participating in the welcome that is to be accorded our distinguished comrade, Theodore Roosevelt, in the city of New York on the 18th inst.

Connecticut headquarters will be established June 18, 1910, at the Marlborough hotel, corner of Broadway and Thirty-sixth street, New York city.

This department will assemble, in uniform, for the parade, at 9.45 a. m., at Fifth avenue and Ninth street, that we may comply promptly with Section 11 of the general orders of the marshal, dated June 10, 1910.

Camp commanders and adjutants are requested to communicate the above to comrades without delay.

The eyes of the civilized world will be upon the metropolis of our nation June 18, and the United Spanish War Veterans will occupy the post of honor in the ceremonies of welcome to our distinguished comrade, Theodore Roosevelt, as he passes through the city.

It behooves the camps of this department to use every effort in making Connecticut's share in the ceremonies a credit to our department.

FRANK P. FENTON, Department Commander.

Official:

ROBERT O. SNOW, Adjutant.

Sent to County Home.

Charles Tollman, the 5 1/2-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. George Tollman, was committed to the county home on Tuesday by Judge of Probate James A. Shore.

The child's parents are divorced and the mother was given the custody of the boy, but it is said that the youngster had not received proper care at her home and it has been cared for in a hospital.

The child was taken to Putnam on the afternoon train Tuesday.

WILLIMANTIC CAMP GROUND.

Recent Wet, Chilly Weather Delayed Arrival of Cottagers.

The continued cold and wet weather has been the means of keeping many families from arriving who were expected last week.

Mrs. Frank Davis of Norwich arrived last Wednesday to clean her cottage on Haven avenue. Mr. Davis arrived Friday and expects to reshingle and repair his house. Mrs. Davis left the grounds for Norwich Sunday.

S. O. Benton visited his family over Sunday. He returned to New York the next day.

Mrs. Helen H. Sterry came from New London Friday to assist in the U. S. W. V. encampment held Friday and Saturday. She returned to New London Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bradley of Rockville came from Hebron Sunday to visit the former's sister, Mrs. S. P. Hurlburt.

Mrs. M. H. Adams and S. P. Hurlburt spent last Tuesday visiting friends in New London.

Mrs. M. H. Adams has gone to Lebanon for a few days.

Last Friday Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Sweet of Providence quietly celebrated the fifty-second anniversary of their marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Sweet have been campers for many years.

Miss Jessie Smith of New London was at her cottage Sunday. She entertained two friends.

Ralph Dimmock of Waterford was a guest of Miss Edith Avery Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Barker of New London were at the cottage Sunday.

They returned home in the afternoon. Mr. Barker will have some repairs made on his cottage.

The state flower is in full bloom and verandas are decorated with it.

Miss Eva Benton visited friends in New London Wednesday.

Mrs. Lydia Spicer of Central Village was at her cottage on Wesley circle.

Walter Moran returned from Providence Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Eldred of Norwich have been his guest.

Mrs. Nichols of Stafford Springs is at her cottage on Wesley circle.

Morrill Currier of Chelsea was a visitor on the grounds Monday.

He stopped over on his way from Manchester to his home.

Henry Pitt was at his cottage on James avenue Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon of Greenfield visited the grounds Monday.

Mrs. Christopher Simmons of Willimantic was a visitor on the grounds Monday.

Mrs. S. L. Sumner returned to Rockville Tuesday.

Miss Stella Alpaugh of Willimantic and mother arrived Monday for the season.

Miss Lydia Eaton and her mother are expected to arrive at their cottage Wednesday for the season from Monson.

SHOULD BE CENSORED.

Rev. L. S. Johnson Calls Attention to Danger in Moving Pictures and Suggests Remedies.

The last meeting of the season was held Wednesday evening by the directors of the New Britain Charity organization. In his report Agent L. S. Johnson called attention to the dangers which surround the moving picture shows and expressed the opinion that the national board of censors is not sufficient and suggested that local censorship would be a good thing.

Simpson Tunnel Construction.

The Simpson tunnel was begun November 13, 1888, and the Swiss and Italian boring parties met at 7.20 a. m., February 24, 1905.

Big Sale of Ostrich Feathers.

The largest quantity of ostrich feathers ever sold in London at once was the 105,000 pounds disposed of at a recent auction sale.

River's Immense Traffic.

In the River Lek, Holland, and its connecting canal to Amsterdam the traffic amounts to over 60,000 vessels of all kinds per annum.

Sorrow is a Fruit.

Sorrow is a fruit; God does not make it grow on hinds too weak to bear it.—Victor Hugo.

VITAL STATISTICS.

May a Record Month for Births—Fifteen Recorded.

The vital statistics for the town of Griswold, on file at the office of Town Clerk Welch, for May show a record month for births, there being 15, as follows: Francis Lee Cole, Katherine Marie McGovern, Helen Frairek, Dorothy Glen Lillibridge, Adelard Gilbert Menard, Josephine May Allen, Louis Edward Lenard, Guionella Kaske, Bernislof Zaidak, Cora Ada Button, Sigmund Petrole—Pietrotto, Herbert Howard Hurst, Cora Albina Dion, Elsie Dora Reynolds, Carmella Maria Schar, no. There were but three deaths—Marie Gagnon, of valvular disease of the heart; Michael Lee, exposure and bronchitis; Margaret Wolf, of pericarditis. Two marriages were recorded: Wilfred Lopilberty and Eliza Dersnha, and Antol Przybylo and Magdalena Lewszima.

Flag Day Observance.

With a cannon salute A. A. Young flung his flag to the breeze early Tuesday morning. A large number in different parts of the borough followed suit.

Mercury Near 90 Degrees.

With the mercury hovering around the 90 mark all day Tuesday, in marked contrast to the recent stretch of cold and wet weather, the heat proved very uncomfortable.

The exercises celebrating flag day in the different grades at the Riverside grammar school were entertaining and instructive. Several hundred pupils heard, many for the first time, the story of how Betsy Ross made the first flag.

Hon. and Mrs. Arthur M. Brown are at Ashburnham, Mass., where they will attend the commencement of Cushing Academy, of which Mrs. Brown is an alumna.

Ladies' Night With Agreeable Features.

The men's class of the M. E. Sunday school was entertained at a regular monthly meeting at the home of Hugh Anderson, on North Main street, Monday evening. It was ladies' night and there was a large number present. These were songs by Miss Hannah Wright of Providence, R. W. Robertson, A. H. McCluggage and William J. Robertson, Jr. Addresses followed by L. F. Kinney and L. W. Howe, and readings by Rev. George D. Stanley, A. H. McCluggage and George W. Bromley. Japanese lanterns were hung here and there about the lawn, making a pleasing illumination. Outdoor games and refreshments made the evening one of capital enjoyment.

Mrs. William Cook and son of Dan-leton were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Babcock.

Your Wife.

Why is it, when there are a lot of folks present with whom you desire to make a hit, that she will insist upon telling you how you stormed and raged last week when she plastered a red flannel cloth, soaked in goose grease, around your neck for your sore throat, and how funny you looked in bed with that unspeakable thing on you.—Philadelphia Telegraph.

His Idea of It.

Asked to express his idea of human misery, an old colored citizen said: "De rent due, an' no man ter move you; de groceries out, an' yo' appetite at de same ol' stand; 15 po' relations ter spend de holidays wid you, an' a preacher ter tell you you gwine ter satan ef you don't mend yo' ways."—Atlanta Constitution.

Platinum Used by Counterfeiters.

Platinum was a favorite metal with counterfeiters some years ago, when its intrinsic value was about six dollars an ounce. Many spurious ten and twenty-dollar United States gold pieces were turned out chiefly composed of this metal. The coins of Great Britain were also tampered with in the same manner.

Was Otherwise Employed.

The editor of this paper has been at the county seat this week, protecting his rights, liberty and pursuit of happiness from the grim and yawning prison walls, where our enemies would most willfully confine us; hence our delay in the publication of this issue.

Ammonia for Heart.

Spirits of ammonia is undoubtedly of great value in cases of heart or nerve exhaustion, and a few drops in a glassful of cold vichy water is a great tonic. It is not one that should be taken without the advice of a physician, however, for it is capable of injuring the heart.

Blood Tells.

James A. Garfield was a congressman, senator-elect and president-elect all in the same year. His famous son is talked of for governor, for senator and administration bugaboo simultaneously. Blood tells.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.
